Tracey Crouch, MP for Chatham & Aylesford, has kindly agreed to be our speaker at the above event.

Tracey was born and educated in Kent and left to study Law at the University of Hull when after graduation she accidentally found herself working as a researcher to a Conservative MP rather than training to become a solicitor.

After two years of working in Parliament (1996-1998), Tracey left to work as a political consultant where she represented a variety of clients in manufacturing, insurance and pet charities until 2010.

Tracey was selected for Chatham in November 2008 and became the Member for Parliament in 2010 with a majority of 6,069 – the largest majority since the creation of the constituency. Subsequently she is delighted to have been re-elected in 2015 with an increased majority of 11,445.

In 2012 Tracey was elected as a committee member of the Culture, Media and Sport Select Committee and in 2013 she was elected as a member of the Political & Constitutional Reform Select Committee. Tracey has served as Chairman of the All Party Alcohol Misuse Group and the All Party Group for Dementia and the All Party Group for Mindfulness and the Vice Chairman of the All Party Group for Women in Sport.

In May 2015, Tracey was appointed Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Sport, Tourism & Heritage. This is a role she is very excited about and as a keen sports enthusiast she is looking forward to promoting sport and wellbeing across all areas of society
